RINGING OF THE BELLS ~ WELCOME and GREETING

OPENING HYMN: "O Holy Spirit, Enter In" (LSB 913)

INVOCATION

CONFESSION and ABSOLUTION

P We confess together:

C Lord God, heavenly Father, we are guilty of being self-reliant. We have been unforgiving and disobedient to Your Word. We confess to You and to one another that our sins have blocked the way to reconciliation. Forgive us for not trusting in Your wisdom, Your strength and Your direction in our lives.

(moment of silent reflection and examination.)

P Jesus invites us to give up our self-reliance and come into a relationship with Him through the power of the Holy Spirit. His grace is sufficient for you. We need forgiveness. We need a Savior. As a called and ordained servant of the Word I announce to you the entire forgiveness of all Your sins. In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Go in peace.

C Amen.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

SPECIAL MUSIC: "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

(Cellist: Amy Raddatz)

FIRST READING: Hebrews 10:19-25

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God!

SECOND READING: Galatians 6:1-10

Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load.

Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches. Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 18:15-20

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew the 18th chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

“If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.
